EXPRESSIONS OF SORROW AND ESTEEM FOR THE LATE

JOHN J. McCANN.

The papers have been watched daily hoping to see a favorable change in the condition of Maj. John McCann, who had been ill for quite a while, but to the sorrow of friends and citizens he succumbed to his illness. The loss of this most excellent gentleman is not only felt in his devoted family, but throughout this city and county. The pleasant relations which he had with the corps of Davidson County teachers has perpetuated him in our memories. His hospitable spirit and gentlemanly ways will always be remembered by us. As he was compelled to cross the Great River, we, the teachers of Davidson County, deeply deplore his loss. We pray God's choicest blessings on his surviving family through life, and especially through these sad hours of bereavement.

Committee—R. H. Brown, Chairman; Rev. S. Thompson, Maymie Thompson, Mary A. Bennett, Narcissa E. Ross.

RETURNED FROM OKLAHOMA.

Miss Martha Wells, of Fourteenth Fourteenth avenue, North, who has been teaching in Oklahoma for the past nine months, arrived in the city Monday evening. Miss Wells has made quite an enviable reputation as a teacher and the faculty of the institute where she was employed, as well as the citizens of Muskogee, were loath to give her up even for the vacation season. She will doubtless remain in this city during the summer months, though it is probable that she will pay a flying visit to the Jamestown Exposition.

BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. B. K. Smith, of 633 Bass street, gave a delightful birthday party in honor of her little daughter, Cornelia, celebrating her ninth birthday on Sunday, June 9. Those present were Misses Louise and Blanche Barnes, of Memphis, Beulah and Katie Bowen, Viola Rivers, Edna Lee Duncan, Charlie May Tucker, Lelia Alexander, Lena Brown, Lucy Demoss, Mary McGown, Elizabeth Tinnon, May Henry Johnson, Estelle Douglas, Corine Bright, Maggie, Georgia and Samuella Anderson, Samuella Shannon, Lillian Stratton, Messrs. Andrew Halman, Moses Douglass, John A. Johnson, Dewees Davis, Ernest Hargraves. An assortment of ices was served.

MARECHAL CLUB.

The Marechal Niel Art Club met at the residence of Mrs. Stephen Turner, Eighth street, East Nashville. Quite a number was present. An excellent program and an interesting discussion were the features of the evening. Mrs. D. A. Hart and Children were the guests of the club. A salad course, cake and ices were served. Mrs. Wayne Warfield will entertain the club at its next meeting.

BANQUET TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Following the graduating exercises of the Pearl High School last Thursday night, the young men of the city and the alumni association of the school tendered a banquet in honor of the class of 1907. Quite a large number of the young people of the city and several visitors were present and joined in the festivities. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening and the spacious rooms of Mercy Hospital furnished excellent facilities for those who delight in the joys of Terpsichore. Light refreshments were served.

NEW LITERARY CLUB.

The young men of St. Paul A. M. E. School Class No. 6 have organized "The Young Men's Literary Club." They have a club room on Chestnut street, between Second and Third avenues. The officers are as follows: W. D. Chappelle, Jr., President; Ed. Lee Kinzer, Vice President; Henry J. Stockard Secretary; Sam'l H. Rhodes, Treasurer; Eugene Berry, Reporter; Herman Davis, Sentinel.

SPRINGHILL NOTES.

Children's Day was observed here Sunday at Wesley Chapel. Good speeches were made by the children. The Wesley Choral Club rendered pleasing music. Mrs. T. J. Peters is director. "We are little soldiers" was sung by a group of nine boys. Miss Clara Alexander sang a beautiful solo. Rev. Mr. Bruce, of the Presbyterian Church, preached an inspiring and helpful sermon. Miss Willie Wade, of Columbia, was here this week. Mrs. Lizzie Wade is visiting in Columbia.

A Sylvan Outing will be given by Mr. G. Sharber and Mr. John Blair next Monday. Twenty or thirty pairs are expected. Music, reading and recitations will be had in the shade of river oaks. Fish and all sorts of refreshments will be served free.

Mrs. G. Sharber is under treatment of the doctor, having been ill for quite a while.

UNA NOTES.

The Solomon Chapel A. M. E. Sunday School celebrated the 25th anniversary of Children's Day on June 9. The people, old and young, seemed to realize that it was indeed Children's Day, and all put forth their best efforts to make it a success, and it was indeed a success. Songs, recitations and papers were well rendered. Rev. A. J. Leath, the pastor, and Rev. C. H. Simmons deserve praise for the success of the celebration.

Mrs. Eva Sneed visited her brother's family at Murfreesboro last week.

Our agent, L. R. Perry, made a flying trip to Nashville Tuesday on business.

MISS PHILLIPS RETURNS TO HER HOME.

Miss Lady Emma Louise Phillips, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. C. H. Phillips, returned to the city last Monday. Miss Phillips has been attending the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and made a host of warm friends, as well as accomplishing much good in her studies. She made some startling records for a first year student in a conservatory like Oberlin, gaining extra recognition in her class and in the choruses that have been sung during the latter part of the school year. It is not known whether Miss Phillips will return for the second year, but it is said that if she does not return to Oberlin she will take up studies under other competent teachers.
